INTRODUCTION

Founded in Germany in 1923, hummel has become an instantly recognised global sports brand. Literally German translated, hummel means bumble bee which by nature defies gravity and shouldn't be able to fly. We take our inspiration from this and from wanting to change the world through sport. 2019 saw huge exposure for the hummel brand in the UK with professional sponsorship deals with Middlesbrough, Charlton Athletic, Coventry City, Fleetwood Town, Cambridge United, Oldham Athletic and Montrose, as well as England and GB rugby league.

2019 also saw the hugely successful relaunch of hummel Teamsport. in the UK & Ireland . Along with a designated UK warehouse with bespoke stock product, a brand new Trade B2B and designated customer service team all implemented to ensure our end consumers, from Champions League to Grassroots all get the best service possible.

2020 is shaping up to be the most historic in the history of hummel, starting with the announcement of becoming technical kit sponsor to Rugby Super League club Wigan Warriors and further Pro Club partnerships being announced in the early part of the year, coupled with huge investment in teamsport stock and more specific product suited to the UK/Ireland market.

Every hummel product is created to Professional standards and made with the same passion and desire as those playing in and wearing the famous chevrons.

We welcome you to the ever growing hummel Teamsport family.
